This can occur with homeowners using a Mac OS device (iPhone, iPad, MacBook, etc.). Safari does not display scroll bars by default. The homeowner must start scrolling with their mousepad or finger to make the scroll bars appear. We have placed a message at the bottom of the window instructing homeowners to “Scroll Down to Submit”.

Under "Payment Information", there is a dropdown for "Payment Type" (set to "Credit/Debit"), a "Card Info" section with fields for "Card number" and "MM / YY CVG", and a checkbox labeled "Set as Default Payment Method" which is checked. This customer may be blocked by a firewall or may be in a country that is not supported by FSPay.

If they are in supported country, their firewall may be blocking the FSPay web address. This can be solved by connecting to a different WiFi/internet network.

If they are using a mobile device, ask them to connect to a different WiFi network and launch FSPay again.

If they are unable to connect to a different WiFi network, ask them to turn off their WiFi connection so that they are using cellular data only (if they have a data plan from their mobile provider), and try to launch FSPay again.

If they are unable to switch to another WiFi network or if they are on a desktop computer that cannot switch networks, ask the customer to make their payment at a later time from another device/network.
